FOREWORD

There will be many problems in the future of each pupil. Although we all are in one small world and looking toward interplanetary travel, we must ever keep our feet firmly planted on the ground.

Never frown at your neighbor's differences. This complex life requires many types of people. No individual has the ability to absorb all the answers to all the questions in a lifetime. Every group has to have a combination of types and personalities which produce a unit to operate in harmony.

Our school has proven to have diverse scholars and teachers all aiming at a single goal.

In life now and in our future, this world, geographic, political and spiritual, will at times seem to be difficult, maybe even senseless, nevertheless patience with strength of mind and body always prevails.

When you look through this REFLECTOR, remember Reflector means mirror. A mirror can only reveal the present; it's up to the vision in the glass to shape the image of the future.

Hoping you have enjoyed a happy past, praying for your pleasant future, we now present a graphic mirror of today.

DEDICATION

The Senior Class of 1956 dedicates this year's Reflector to David J. Allen. Mr. Allen was elected principal in 1918 and held the position until 1942 when he was appointed as Dean of the school.

Mr. Allen will always be remembered for his dependability, absolute fairness, and consideration of others. Even though he hasn't been with us during our senior year, we have not forgotten him. The Class of 1956 wishes him the best years of his life during his retirement.

DAVID J. ALLEN

To the Class of 1956, congratulations.

You have completed a memorable phase in your lives and will now enter into new adventures which will take you into a variety of activities. Those of us who have been privileged to be part of your youth wish for you the best of everything for all the rest of your lives.

ADMINIS

EDWARD J. ANDERSON
Superintendent

My congratulations to you are offered with a feeling of wholeness in terms of responsibility and pride, for my association with Wayland High School began when you were freshmen.

Much of our progress, our ideals, and our values are the result of the lives you have lived here. Your leadership is valued. It should continue to be reflected in outstanding work wherever you may be.

Good luck and the best of everything for each of you.

TRATION

WILLIAM M. GRIFFIN
Principal

Congratulations to the Class of 1956. You all may take a deep satisfaction in what you have accomplished, but do not be satisfied. Let this graduation be the beginning of greater achievements.

Strive always to place service above self, and to develop an awareness of your responsibilities to society. Your community will then receive the benefit of a thoughtful, participating citizen.

May success continue to crown your endeavors.

OUR CLASS OFFICERS

CLASS POEM

Our high school days are over now —
The future we must face,
The world, a cruel and bitter fight
Yet — we must find our place.

And now we may discover,
what our elders say is true
Long are the working days:
the vacations, very few.

And now dear Wayland High,
We've lived and learned with you.
Ruefully we leave the pleasant times —
Good luck, Good hope — adieu.

REFLECTOR STAFF

Throughout the Senior year the Reflector Staff devotes many hours to the planning of the yearbook. It was a hard struggle but the enjoyment that will be received from the book in the years to come will be worth the effort.

Just think of the number of times we will look through the yearbook and recall all the exciting events and happy times we had during our high-school days.

For the book that holds all these wonderful memories between its covers, we are indebted to our hardworking Yearbook Staff.

OUR JUNIOR

PROM

Moonlight and Roses

"Moonlight and Roses," the perfect setting for the perfect prom. Fifty couples whirled to the dreamy music of Joey Parks and his orchestra.

Preparation galore flowed into this festive occasion; work and fun combined, made our prom the most successful in Wayland's history.

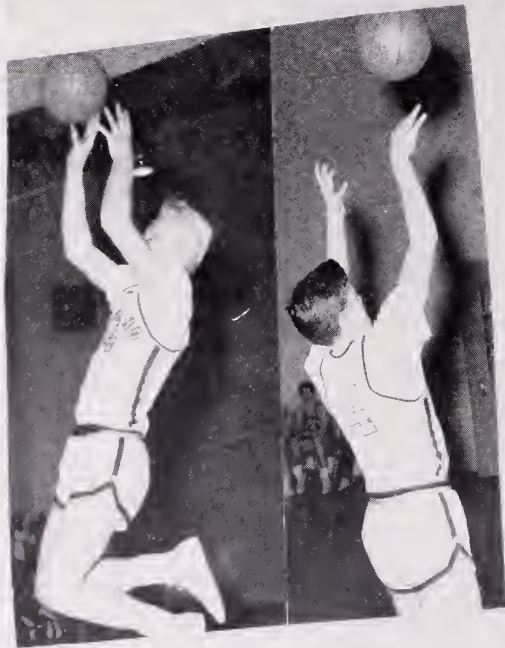

At the height of the evening with all its splendor, Barbara Roche and her escort Jack Livezey were crowned queen and king, and reigned happily over the magnificent evening.

THE CLASS HISTORY

At last we are graduating, but really it seems like only yesterday that we were the lowly Freshmen eager to learn all we could.

That Fall we elected Gerald Humphrey, President; Bruce King, Vice-President; Paul Bradley, Treasurer; and Mary Jane Fabisak, Secretary. Shirley May and Bruce King carried our criticisms and suggestions to Student Council. The unusual thing about this election was that all the candidates elected ran on the same ticket, the Studocrats.

The new-comers to our class were Cynthia Johnson and Gordon Gullage.

In the Fall of '52 we were represented on the football field by Doug Hatfield, John Thorburn, Spike Marotte, Ronny Houghton, Paul Bradley, Fred Tassinari and Robert Sandwell, with Paul Zayotti as the manager.

Our girls went for field hockey in a big way. Carol Archer, Carol Lindbohm, Claire Witzell, and Agnes Houston helped us to have a better than .500 average.

Will you ever forget Initiation Day? We had tea bags hanging from our ears and old shoes around our necks. Gerald Humphrey and Judy Simoni were awarded prizes for being the funniest-looking Freshmen.

Joan Lizotte, Judy Simoni, and Betsy Tanger were the actresses of our class, participating in the Dramatics Club.

The "Wayland Whispers" received many new members from the Freshmen class. Those included were Kathleen Andrews, Agnes Houston, Nancy Tarr, Betsy Tanger, Mary Jane Fabisak, Barbara Beal, Joan Tewksbury, Judy Simoni, John MacKeen, Eileen Bresse, and Joan Lizotte.

Many of the Freshmen eagerly helped in the Library Club. A few of the members were Carol DeWolfe, Mary Jane Fabisak, Eileen Bresse, Joan Tewksbury, Marilyn Heizmann, and Maryann Smith.

Paul Zayotti, Paul Bradley, and Fred Tassinari had places on the J. V. basketball squad. The girls had their own basketball team, on which most of the girls played.

John Thorburn and Fred Tassinari played on the baseball team while Carol Lindbohm and Marilyn Dusseault played on the girls softball team that spring.

When final exams were over, we welcomed summer vacation bringing a successful Freshmen year to a close.

In the Fall of '53 we returned to the "Halls of Wayland High" to continue our learning.

To our class we welcomed Carol Bucknam and Barbara Roche.

Like the year before we started off with class elections; Jim Merikangas, President; Cynthia Johnson, Vice-President; Janet Shepard, Secretary; and Mary Jane Fabisak, Treasurer. Also Judy Simoni and Betsy Tanger were the Student Council members.

Our football stars were John Thorburn, Gordon

Gullage, Gerald Humphrey, Donald Graves, Spike Marotte, and Fred Tassinari, with ever faithful Paul Zayotti as manager. The girls had a fair field hockey season with Claire Witzell, Carol Lindbohm, Carol Archer, Rita Brosseau, Mary Jane Fabisak, Joan Lizotte, and Agnes Houston.

Our great social event of the year, a record hop with Stan Richards and guest Jan Strickland, turned out to be a tremendous success.

Our class had many of the highest scorers on the basketball team, Paul Zayotti, Fred Tassinari, Paul Bradley, Spike Marotte, and John Thorburn. To root our boys on we elected Rachel Wheelock and Maryann Smith to the cheerleading squad. When our girls formed their basketball team for the year; Carol Lindbohm, Rita Brosseau, Claire Witzell, Marilyn Dusseault, Carol Archer, Joan Lizotte, Janet Shepard, Betsy Tanger, Agnes Houston and Kathleen Andrews participated.

The Spring came again and out for baseball were John Thorburn, Paul Bradley, Paul Zayotti, and Fred Tassinari, while Maryann Smith, Carol Archer, Carol Dyer, and Joan Lizotte supplied Wayland High with another successful season on the softball diamond. With this came the end of the Sophomore year.

With the Fall of '54 we, the Juniors, elected Barbara Roche, our first girl-President. The other officers were as follows: Janet Shepard, Vice-President; Carolyn LeDrew, Secretary; and Agnes Houston, Treasurer. This time we called upon Janet Shepard, Judy Simoni, and Barbara Roche to represent us in Student Council.

The new-comers that year were Paul Senory, Carole Haugh, Diane Dudgeon, Beth Cusumano, and Francine Schiavone.

Spike Marotte, Buster Keating, Paul Senory, Gerald Humphrey, Ronnie Houghton, Fred Tassinari, Paul Bradley, and John Thorburn pushed the football squad to a record of six wins and one loss.

The girls elected Agnes Houston captain of the Varsity Field Hockey team. Her fellow teammates were Carol Dyer, Claire Witzell, Rita Brosseau, Mary Jane Fabisak, Joan Lizotte, Eileen Bresse, Carol Archer, and Kathleen Andrews.

We were very proud of the nine girls elected to the National Honor Society, the highest possible honor conferred upon anyone in high school. Congratulations to Kathleen Andrews, Judy Simoni, Rita Brosseau, Joan Lizotte, Carolyn LeDrew, Barbara Roche, Mary Jane Fabisak, Eileen Bresse and Agnes Houston.

John Thorburn, Spike Marotte, Fred Tassinari and Paul Bradley were the four juniors on the basketball squad. Again this year many girls showed up for basketball. Agnes Houston, Claire Witzell, Mary Jane Fabisak, Joan Lizotte, Carol Archer, Marilyn Dusseault, Carol Lindbohm, and Kathleen Andrews were the enthusiastic players. Our teams were urged on by the excellent cheering of Maryann Smith, Judy Simoni, and Rachel Wheelock.

We had the most successful Junior Prom in the history of Wayland High School. Our class President, Barbara Roche, was chosen Queen with Rita Brosseau, Beth Cusumano and Joan Tewksbury in the court.

Paul Senory, Fred Tassinari, John Thorburn, and Paul Bradley helped our team to have a fairly good season on the baseball diamond.

Our girls, Carol Lindbohm, Joan Lizotte, Nancy McEnroy, Carolyn LeDrew, Carol Dyer, Joan Tewksbury, Maryann Smith, Marilyn Dusseault, and Claire Witzell, beat Sudbury in one of the better softball games of the season. Marilyn Hiezmann was the manager.

Paul Senory and Judy Simoni were elected to represent us at Boys' and Girls' State for a week during the summer.

John MacKeen brought honor to our class by placing third in the Math Contest conducted by Mr. Boothroyd. Also he was given the Harvard Award for the highest marking junior boy.

Carole Haugh and Paul Senory led the Class of '55 down the aisle at graduation, thus bringing our Junior year to a close.

We have finally reached our destination. We are THE SENIORS!

Again this year we had three new-comers to our class. They were Nathalie Baker, Jim Berry, and the return of Barbara Beal.

We have been able to hold our heads high under the guiding hand of our class officers. Paul Senory, President; Paul Bradley, Vice-President; Mary Jane Fabisak, Secretary; and Agnes Houston, Treasurer. Once again our Student Council representatives were all girls, Judy Simoni, Janet Shepard, Barbara Roche, and Carolyn LeDrew. Paul Senory, the President, was later appointed to Student Council.

Even though the opening of school was delayed, our football squad started practice under the leadership of captains, Spike Marotte, and Fred Tassinari. Other senior squad members were John Thorburn, Ronny Houghton, Paul Bradley, Paul Senory, and Buster Keating. After beating Weston by a score of 18-0 in the final game of the season, we held our annual football dance. Barbara Wilbur and many other seniors were busy helping with decorations. The dance was spotlighted by an enormous cake, beautifully decorated with all the names of the players, coaches, and managers, made by Kathleen Andrews and Agnes Houston.

Let's not forget our field hockey team. This year under the leadership of Captain Joan Lizotte, the girls surpassed last year's record and did not win a game. The following girls were on the team just the same: Rita Brosseau, Eileen Bresse, Claire Witzell, Carol Archer, Carol Dyer, Agnes Houston, and Kathleen Andrews. Mary Jane Fabisak and Marilyn Heizmann were the managers.

Early this fall Paul Senory and Barbara Roche were elected co-editors of the Yearbook with Rita Brosseau, Business Manager.

For the second time in the history of Wayland High we conducted a record poll on WHDH's

Boston Ballroom. Representing our school were Fred Tassinari, Paul Senory, Eileen Bresse, and Carol Dyer. By the way the top tune was "Sixteen Tons."

After winning the Dual County League Championship, our magnificent team, composed of Spike Marotte, John Thorburn, and Co-captains, Paul Bradley and Fred Tassinari, journeyed to Natick for the first of the Tech. Tourney games. In the quarter finals we outwitted Sacred Heart of Weymouth 47-38. The next week in the semi-finals we tromped over East Bridgewater 60-49. Bridgewater beat us by a close margin in the finals, but still our basketball team will go down in the history of the school.

Not to be outmatched by the boys the girls continued their record on the basketball court by not winning a game. This fabulous record was upheld by Janet Shepard, Claire Witzell, Marilyn Dusseault, Joan Lizotte, Agnes Houston, and our Co-captains Carol Lindbohm and Carol Archer. Carolyn LeDrew and Kathleen Andrews were the managers.

Eileen Bresse was elected our DAR good citizen and also our representative at Student Government Day, two very great honors. For the second time in Wayland High a boy was chosen for DAR; Fred Tassinari had the honor.

Three members of our class were received into the National Honor Society. Everyone was very proud of Carol Archer, Marilyn Heizmann, and John MacKeen.

In the spring we put on a comedy call "Young April," which was a tremendous success. We shall never forget all the trouble Mr. Taylor and Miss Gilmore went to for us. The leads were Catherine Regan, Paul Bradley, John Lizotte, Bob Keefe, Carole Haugh, Spike Marotte and Mary Jane Fabisak. Other members of the cast were Kathleen Andrews, Janet Shepard, Judy Simoni, John Thorburn, Paul Senory, Ronny Houghton, Carolyn LeDrew, and Beth Cusumano. The back stage help was Nathalie Baker and Agnes Houston and the usherettes were Carol Archer, Barbara Beal, Rita Brosseau, Joan Tewksbury, Rae Wheelock, and Claire Witzell.

The following day we had the Sports Banquet. After a hearty meal the awards and jackets were given out. Paul Senory and Carol Lindbohm worthily were given the Babe Ruth Good Sportsmanship Award while Fred Tassinari deservingly received the W.H.S. Best Athlete Award. Fifteen girls and seven boys got jackets.

We, seniors will always be remembered for our outstanding selling ability. The following boys practiced this in Way-Co; Mickey Gladu, Bruce King, Buster Keating, Spike Marotte, John Laughlin, and Ronny Houghton.

Again this year John MacKeen bestowed honors on our class by placing first in the math test conducted by Mr. Demeo. He also came in second in Massachusetts in the UN Scholarship. He was given $50 and the honor of shaking the Governor's hand. For the first time in Wayland we participated in the state wide Science Fair. We were thrilled when Mary Jane Fabisak got honorable mention.

FASHION PARADE

A fashion show was held last week at the home of Hollywood's most celebrated interior decorator, Nathalie Baker. The fashion show was made up completely of Cusumano originals. Among Miss Baker's guests were Barbara Beal of the famous Bealsie's Bubblegum chain, Carol Dyer, a major in badminton at Katie Gibbs, and Claire Witzell, traveling yo-yo demonstrator.

The National Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Hot-tempered Redheads has announced the name of their new President — Miss Kathleen Andrews. Kathleen, one of the founders of the club, has helped induct such distinguished members as Mary Ann Parr, wife of the famous cattle rancher; and Fuller Brush Man, John Laughlin.

Universal-International's top make-up artist Diane Dudgeon today announced that she is through with Jeff. After years of waiting, she decided playboy Ralph Marotte was far more distinguished. Miss Diane also does the make-up work for many TV programs including Private Secretary, starring Carol Archer.

Eileen Bresse has taken another step up the ladder of fame by completing a tour of Europe. Miss Bresse has been traveling with the nationally known opera company of Madame Fabisak. We all remember Madame Fabisak as the latest in King Farouk's collection. Miss Bresse will be returning to America where she will be making guest appearances at several of the better known schools for girls — including the Charming Miss School of Boston. Director of the school, James Berry, would like to add here, that interviews for French teachers are being scheduled now. Mr. Paul Senory, the French professor at the present time, is teaching a course on "Making French Charming." However, he seems to be concentrating more on the charming than the French.

Lindy, Crowl, and Dos have released their latest platter — "Moonlight on the Sudbury River." This tender ballad has captured the hearts of Americans sending its sales soaring to thousands in the first few days. Show business hasn't had a smash like this since Catherine Reganelli hit Broadway with the musical comedy "Cheaper by the Dozen."

Miss Rita Brosseau, socialite of the nationally known Newbury chain, was selected best diamond polisher in New England. She was chosen by Miss Barbara Roche, an owner of controlling stock in Dunkin' Donuts, and awarded a lifetime supply of chocolate honey-dipped jelly donuts.

An ace reporter for the Wayland Town Crier found out late yesterday afternoon that Donald Graves' secret mission to Russia was to give the Reds his latest plans for the destruction of the earth. We expect, however, the competition of Alan Lynch, a Nobel prize winner, to discourage Graves in this latest venture.

Marlee Heizmann, Director of Admissions at Harvard University has been called for jury duty in a local court. Lawyer Joan Tewksbury, who specializes in teenage accident cases is standing against the Wilbur Speeding Club of Wayland.

On the Sports scene, Umpire Ag Houston is still ill from the effects of a coke bottle she met.

Coach Bradley, heart-throb of MacKeen University announced early this morning that Fred Tassinari has been unanimously voted Honorary President of the Little League Association. The presentation will be made by Professor John Thorburn, who teaches the Basic Principles of an Effective Love Letter, later this evening.

Daring Bob Keefe, professionally known as Keefe Roberts has published another book in his series on wild game of Africa. Bob, hunter of wild African game is famous for luring his catch to a snare with his blaring trumpet — a variation of the Pied Piper routine. He thus catches the game live bringing them back to America for the zoos. Nurse Joan Lizotte of the American Animal Rescue League has been assigned full care of the animals on their journey across the ocean.

Mademoiselle Carolyn LeDrew would like to remind everyone of the fine designing and seamstress work done in Buster's newest ladies' lingerie shop — "Keating's Kool Nightie Nights."

Mal Dusseault, private secretary on Eleanor's alligator farm in Florida, recently wrote the Crier telling us that in a recent jazzband election, Judy Simoni was elected Salvation Army's best tuba player. As a prize she received a free McEnroy Super BB Treat. Last week Nancy received a gold soda trophy for selling her millionth original Super BB Treat.

Carole Haugh, known (joshingly, of course) as a mental case, is undergoing mental treatment at Shepard Hospital for Flipped Lids. The sever shock or receiving an A in PD after these ten years upset her nervous system so, that she is expected to be under observation several weeks.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Pres., J. Simoni; Vice-Pres., J. Houghton, Sec., C. LeDrew, Treas.,
D. Herland.

The Student Council is the sole student governing body. Its members, from every class in the high school, are elected by their classmates. The Student Council is the voice of the students. Its responsibility is to convey the wishes of the student body to the faculty. Its object is to prepare and educate the students in the job of self-governing. The Council helps to further a spirit of cooperation throughout the school.

This year the Council visited neighboring high schools to better understand how their Councils function. For the third consecutive year the Council has aided the Kiwanis Club with a Halloween Party. It has sponsored a paper drive, paid assemblies and after-school candy selling. This year the Constitution was amended to allow the Presidents of each class to become Student Council members.

Front Row: J. Simoni, L. Cherry, D. Herland, J. Simoni, J. Houghton, C. LeDrew, D. Boesenberg, P. Ferreira.

CHATTER-BOX

Whether it be news of coming events or news of recent events that the student body is looking for, they can turn to the school newspaper, the Chatterbox. Whether it is the "big game" of the year or just a casual record hop, you will find complete details in the newspaper. Is your favorite reading mystery or comedy? You will find just the story or poem to suit your taste in the Chatterbox.

Let's hope it keeps up the good work in years to come!

DRIVERS' EDUCATION

This year the School's Driver Education Course has increased immensely. The high school has at its convenience a 1956 Chevrolet through the courtesy of Cochrane Motors.

So far approximately 300 students have received their license through this program. In order to receive their license the student must have classroom instruction and behind the wheel experience.

The students of Wayland are very fortunate to have a Driver Education Program free, and everyone is waiting patiently for his turn at the wheel.

Way-co is our school store, organized and supported by the Commercial Law and Salesmanship classes. Pupils who are interested, buy shares of stock in the store which sells pencils, erasers, rulers, ink, book covers, and gym equipment to the entire school.

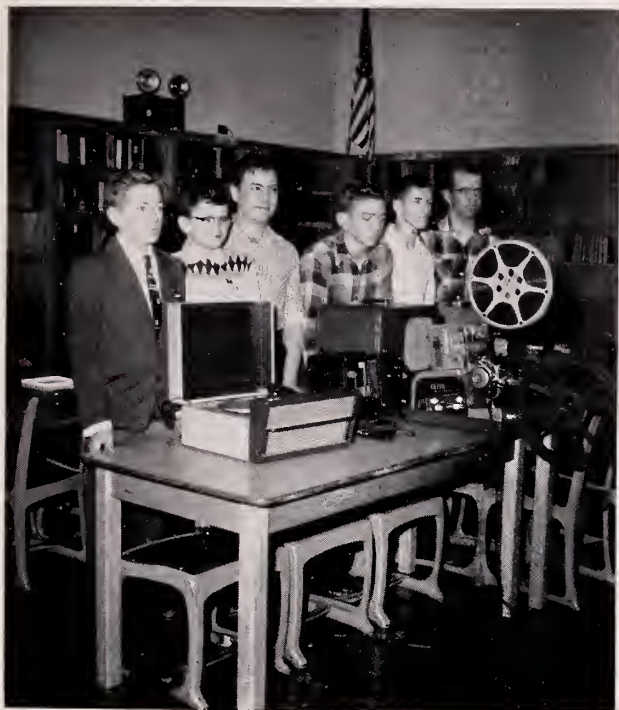

At the end of the school year, inventory is taken and the remaining supplies are turned over to the school. Then the profit is figured and dividends are paid to the stockholders. Every pupil is proud and happy to receive his dividend, gained by his cooperation and support.

All of us are grateful to the Projector's Club. Many times throughout the year its members have contributed to our classes. They help us to grasp ideas and gain full knowledge and also show movies in other places in town for entertainment and educational purposes. The members are competent and skillful which may aid them after graduation.

GLEE CLUB

Each week the Chorus and Glee Club meet to enjoy two periods of group singing. In this way many students have become aware of their musical abilities.

The Girls' Chorus is made up of Senior High girls who lift their voices and thoughts in melody and three-part harmony. With this spirit, good music and comradeship is developed.

The Glee Club is made up of both girls and boys who enjoy participating in the various forms of concerted singing.

The music of the Chorus's range from selections from old favorites down to the contributions of modern composers. Music is sung which is received into the hearts of all.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The Francis Wayland Chapter of the National Honor Society has as its four main objectives, Scholarship, Character, Service, and Leadership. Each year, at the termination of the first semester, the faculty selects those members of the junior and senior classes, who having attended Wayland High School for a minimum of one year, best exemplify those four requisites. A candidate's scholastic average must be "B" or better for his entire school program.

At the impressive induction ceremony held each spring, those students elected to the National Honor Society receive pins and certificates as tokens of membership. After the induction, parents and friends of members were guests at a breakfast held in the seminar room. In the evening, the Parent-Teacher Association provided a most enjoyable banquet at the historic Wayside Inn for the members. Many parents and friends attended.

This year members of the National Honor Society headed a drive to collect good used toys to be sent to a children's polio clinic in Fall River. Many articles were collected which will provide hours of enjoyment for the patients who attend the clinic.

The Class Song is sung.

Use it well, Bobby.

Cath and Timmy read the History.

NIGHT

For the Seniors, Class Night is one of the most enjoyable occasions of their school life and is surpassed only by graduation.

The Class History was read by Catherine Houston and Tim Smith. Shirley Stevens and Carol Yarrish prophesized the future. Through Tom Longtine and Andy Kerr the departing Seniors bequeathed gifts to the underclassmen.

To complete the evening there were refreshments followed by dancing.

The evening started with happiness, but there was a bit of sadness at the close, as the Seniors realized that their high school days were nearly over.

Orchids for you, Miss Gilmore

The night was a success!

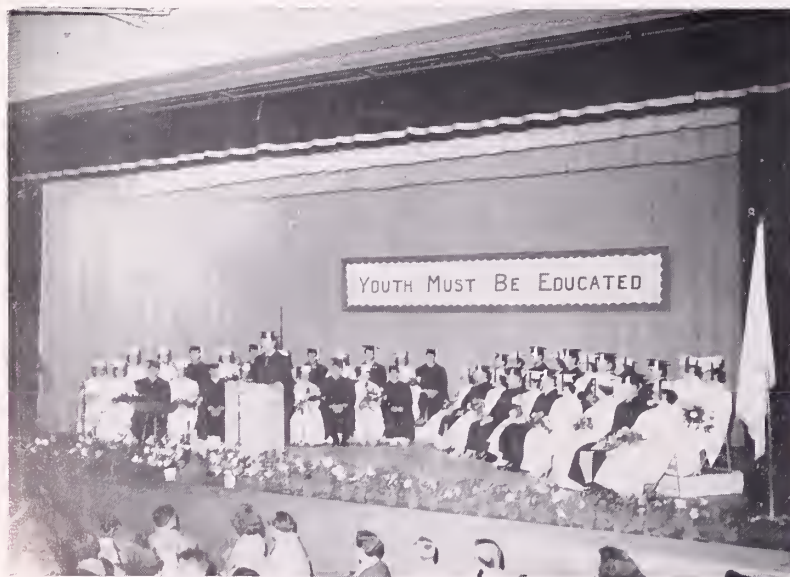

GRADUATION

"Pomp and Circumstance" rings through the air as the Seniors make their way to the stage. Susan Robinson, Carol Yarrish, Andrew Kerr, and Shirley Stevens give their views on the theme, "Youth Must Be Educated." Lenore Butler recited the class poem and Edward Powers presented Mr. Griffin with the class gift. Special awards and scholarships are presented to the following deserving members of the graduating class: Shirley Stevens, Karen Riggs, Arthur Holmes, and Catherine Houston.

Then suddenly it's all over and a new road appears to the members of the Class of "55."

VARSIITY DRAG

Varsity Drag was the name chosen by the committee for the victory football dance held on November 18, 1955.

The senior Class invited all the members of both varsity and freshman teams to be their guests, as well as the cheerleaders.

This dance was enjoyed by everyone as we had a very successful football season, beating Weston on that very day.

CHEERLEADERS

Each fall any girl from the sophomore, junior and senior class interested in being a cheerleader for the coming football and basketball seasons, attends practice for a couple of weeks. After the girls learn three cheers, a rally is held in the auditorium to show the student body what they have learned.

The girls are chosen on their ability to cheer, their pep and spirit, good sportsmanship and character.

Two sophomores, three juniors and four seniors are elected by members of their own class.
